

Project final conference

Development of methods for assessment and mapping of ecosystem services of marine and inland waters

24 November 2015; Tartu Environmental Education Centre (Lille 10; www.tartuloodusmaja.ee)

10.00 - 10.30	Registration Welcome coffee Short tour in the centre
10.45 - 11.00	Opening Silver Vahtra – Estonian Ministry of Environment
11.00-11.10	Overview about the project activities and results Aija Kosk – Project manager, Peipsi Center for Transboundary Cooperation
11.10-12.50	Presentations by working groups Ingmar Ott, Estonian University of Life Sciences – assessment methods for lakes ecosystem services Sirje Vilbaste, Estonian University of Life Sciences - assessment methods for rivers ecosystem services Robert Aps, Estonian Marine Institute, University of Tartu– assessment methods for marine ecosystem services Kalev Sepp, Estonian University of Life Sciences – different methods of assessing inland waters ecosystem services Evelin Urbel-Piirsalu, SEI Tallinn – monetary value of Lake Harku ecosystem services Jaanus Terasmaa, Tallinn University Institute for Ecology– marine and inland waters ecosystems indicators
12.50-13.00	Questions, discussion
13.00-13.15	Working tour in the garden of Environmental Education Centre
13.15-14.15	Lunch in restaurant “Spargel”
14.30-15.30	Ecosystem Services – the issue of public goods and private goods Iiska van Dijk ja Odd Terje Sandlund ; Norwegian Institute for Nature Research (NINA)
15.30-16.30	Further steps and recommendations for the ecosystem services assessment methods implementation Lauri Klein - Estonian Environment Agency Tea Nõmmann – SEI Tallinn Questions, discussion
16.30-17.30	Final discussions with coffee and cake

Contacts and registration:

Margit Säre, Peipsi Koostöö Keskus; tel +372 5088409, margit@ctc.ee; www.ctc.ee