

Module 1 topic 1 Air Law

The module the topic is included in	Basics of Aviation
Schedule and additional information	Schedule shall be provided as a separate document
Format of studies	Lecture, independent work with materials
Language(s) of instruction	Estonian, English
Lecturer(s)	Kert Kotkas
Volume	4 academic hours
Goal	The objective of the session is to give the participants an overview of aviation structures and of the development procedures of international legal acts. Also, the participants obtain the basic knowledge of international legal acts, flight rules in force and basic concepts of aviation.
Topics / content of module	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Development of Air Law;• ICAO and its objectives;• Chicago Convention 1944 and its appendices; other more important conventions;• Civil aviation laws of freedom and international aviation conventions;• European Civil Aviation Organisations, their objectives and tasks;• Relationship between aviation regulations set by ICAO and by the European Union;• The most important aviation regulations of the EU (EASA).
Learning materials and additional information	Lecture notes in Moodle environment (moodle.eava.ee)