

Tools
Superseminar
3.-4.05.2016

Program

Tuesday, 03.05

10:00-10:30 – Morning coffee and registration to the Think Tanks.

10:30-12:30 - Session I – Why do we need changes in the cooperation between researchers, educators, entrepreneurs and citizens?

Speakers: Liina Vaher (Science Centre AHHA), Rosina Malagrida (la Caixa, Spain), Terje Tuisk (Estonian Research Council). Moderated by Arko Olesk.

12.45-13:00 - Think Tanks:

- What kind of changes does the civil society need today?
- What kind of changes does the education need today and tomorrow? What do we expect from research?
- What are the „bottlenecks“ in knowledge intensive enterprises?
- What is expected from the science centres and science museums as the shapers of responsible and innovative thinking?

13:30 Lunch at Newton Cafe

14:30-16:00 - Session II – How to create a life-long understanding of the responsible and innovative way of thinking? What are the current practices?

Speakers: Kertu Saks (Energy Discovery Centre), Margus Pedaste (University of Tartu), Prof. Bulent Cavas (Dokuz Eylul University, Turkey). Moderated by Arko Olesk.

16:00-16:30 Coffee Break

16.30-18:00 - Session III – How can politics, research, education, citizen initiatives and entrepreneurs support the rise of responsibility and innovativeness?

Speakers: Prof. Ene Ergma (University of Tartu), Mart Laidmets (Ministry of Science and Education), Sheena Laursen (Experimentarium, Denmark). Moderated by Arko Olesk.

18.00-19:00 - Think Tanks:

- How can the citizen initiatives affect politics, research, education and entrepreneurship?
- How does the quality of education affect politics, research and civil society?
- How do research and development affect education, politics and global challenges?
- What is the role of a knowledge intensive enterprise in shaping politics, research development, education and the well-being of society?
- How can science centres and museums contribute to research, education, entrepreneurship and civil society?

19:00 Surprise from AHHA!

20:00 Dinner

21:00 AHHA's Science Show

Wednesday, 04.05

10:00-11:30 - Session IV – Labour market – as seen by service industries. How can policy-making, education research and civil society make it better?

Speakers: Uku Varblane (University of Tartu, Centre for Applied Social Sciences), Toomas Danneberg (Estonian Service Industry Association), Martin Noorkõiv (Domus Dorpatensis). Moderated by Arko Olesk

11:45-12:30 – Think Tanks:

- What kind of initiatives increase the well-being and the involvement of the society?
- What kind of support do teachers and students need?
- How can research facilities affect the involvement of other groups of the society?
- How can enterprises help to shape the work skills and attitudes towards work?
- How can the science centres and museums raise the quality of the workforce?

12:30 Lunch

13:30 Conclusions from the Think Tanks' sessions

14:00 Acknowledgements

14:30 End of the seminar