Food sightseeing day-trip - “Romantic North-Coast”

This special guided bus tour heads to the Lahemaa National Park and is a good opportunity for you to discover Estonia's most popular nature reserve with its jagged coasts, vast forests, wetlands, and variety of manors and taverns in a sauce of tasting the best & natural Estonian cuisine while on a trip.

After some 45 minutes of drive the first stop of the tour will be at the famous Viru bog where you can take a short hike on the natural trail. There will be a surprise picnic served in the side of the bog. Further the tour continues with drive on the country roads to the coast through ancient forests and fields, with your next stop being at Palmse Manor House. Have a short stroll in romantic manor house park with swan pond, bathhouse and the Palm House, and taste the real Estonian fruit & berry wine in the manor wine cellar.

Tour continues with visit to old fishermen's village Altja, which offers a glimpse into the life of coastal people in olden times with its genuine romantic aura in nowadays. After a short stroll in the village and seaside you'll be taken for a petite starter and Estonian national refreshment drink “Kama” to the authentic Estonian tavern “Altja Tavern”, or “Palmse Tavern” (seating inside and/or outside weather permitting).

After a short break the tour continues with drive to Vihula Manor House Complex, where by arrival you will head to the main manor house where you'll be seated in the fine dine Vihula Manor restaurant, which is known using a lot of fresh ingredients for its tasty cuisine right from its own garden.

After the lunch you'll have a short stroll around the premises, which will be guided by the hostess of the manor. You'll visit to the old watermill and taste the fresh snacks made from traditional Estonian bread. Further you'll head to the old vodka distillery of the manor and have a vodka degustation (4 different vodkas) which shall be served along with pickled cucumbers, and accompanied by stories and legends from the vodka smugglers era in the region!

After this you'll have a schnapps making workshop, where everyone will have a chance to prepare his/her own berry-schnapps. You'll have a chance to bottle and label your schnapps, and take it along with you as a souvenir to warm you up during some cold winter days.

After the workshop you'll have some spare time to stroll around in the premises of this manor house complex on your own. You can visit Vihula Manor Lifestyle store in the old watermill.

Your special tour ends with transfer back to Tallinn. Do not hesitate to ask our guide for recommending some nice lounges or cafés for the evening out when back in Tallinn!

And do not forget, that during the whole tour our special tour guide will accompany you with all the meals and tell you a fascinating stories in connection to Estonian (cuisine) history & nowadays.
