Dream Castle

2016

Maasike Maasik
Dream Castle (details)

*Imagination makes things real.
Memories of places we never visited can be so intense that we search for the train tickets from our pockets. Our dream castles are solid and complex with multiple rooms for joys and fears.*

In the middle of courtyard there is a wishing well: a blue circle of escape to somewhere else. The coins I have thrown there are still sinking, sinking.

Solstice

2018

Maasike Maasik
Solstice (detail)

*Solstice is a moment of extremes, something is going to change. A smooth transition of colours melting into each other is replaced with a vigorous blast
of growth, passion and sharp ends.
Concentration of new raw energy finding its way to take over.*
