

Ai Traffic Management Refresher course

Date	As agreed on / on request
Venue	Tallinn
Schedule and additional information	Schedule shall be specified on placing the order
Format of studies	Classroom teaching
Language(s) of instruction	Estonian or English
Lecturer(s)	Estonian Aviation Academy, employees from Estonian Air Navigation Services
Volume	126 academic hours (studies take place once/twice a week during the period of 4–5 months)
Price	As agreed on
Target group	The course is primarily aimed at employees without any aviation related preparation from enterprises engaged in air traffic management
Size of group	As agreed on
Goal	On completion of the course the participants have acquired the general knowledge of the professional field of air traffic management
Topics	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Aviation legislation and organisations – 16 hours;• Air traffic services – 22 hours;• Airfields – 19 hours;• Navigation – 22 hours;• Basics of aerodynamics and aircraft construction – 8 hours;• Working principles of equipment and devices used in air traffic control and flight information service – 11 hours;• Flight Information Service – 12 hours;• Meteorology – 8 hours;• Human Factor in Aviation – 8 hours
Requirements set for passing the course	The course programme shall be deemed completed if the final written test in all the subjects has been passed and scored 75% as a minimum
Documents issued on completion of the course	The participants shall be awarded the certificate by EAVA on the subjects in which the final test was passed positively
Registration and further information	Anu Vare, anu.vare@eava.ee The order shall have to be placed 6 months in advance