II. THE GOAL, LEARNING OUTCOMES AND DESCRIPTION OF SUBJECT COURSE
GOAL OF SUBJECT COURSE	To enable students acquire survival through beginners' knowledge of the Estonian language, usable to establish contact in Estonian language settings, and pursue learning the language at the next level
LEARNING OUTCOMES	Learners acquire certain essential, survival conversational skills in Estonian that comprise: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• expressing essential social courtesies in Estonian;</li> <li>• forming simple questions in Estonian;</li> <li>• operating with simple present and past forms;</li> <li>• getting experience of reading and understanding easy texts (using simple syntax).</li> </ul>
SHORT DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE	This course is interactive, helping the language learners to start speaking Estonian since the first moment. It closely follows the principles of language ontogenesis in people and applies them into instruction and learning. Atmosphere is relaxed and students are encouraged to do their best and gain their most. Topics discussed enable to intertwine the syntax construction(s) just preceded as well as those learned earlier. The main impetus is given to let students become more encouraged, eager to use the language and continue learning it further.

V. LEARNING MATERIALS

Compulsory materials: All course texts and auxiliary materials will be distributed by the course instructor JIT = Just In Time.

Useful resources:

1. <http://www.unilang.org/viewtopic.php?f=53&t=4830&start=285&st=0&sk=t&sd=a>
This is a very good link – it unites learners of the same language(s) globally, and also carries responses with explanations and guidance from (native) speakers who will and have experience to share;
2. Pesti, Mall, Ahi, Helve. E nagu Eesti. Eesti keele õpik algajaile. Tallinn : TEA Kirjastus, 1998. 267 lk. + 1 helikassett (34 min, 35 sek). 3., parand. tr. 1999; 4. tr. 2000. (Textbook of Estonian for beginners – is pretty good for self-teaching, and can sometimes be used also in the classes)
3. ... - Estonian Phrasebook (available in local bookstores)
