

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Established in 1918, Tallinn University of Technology (TalTech) is the flagship of Estonian engineering and technology education. The TalTech Centre for Digital Forensics and Cyber Security is the focal point of cyber security research and education in the University since 2014. In addition to the Centre, the University has numerous other research groups and education programs that are relevant to cyber security.

BUSINESS PRODUCTS

- International four-year resident PhD program (in English).
- International two-year resident MSc program (in English) on Cyber Security, with specialization options in Cyber Security, Digital Forensics and Cryptography.
- International three-year resident BSc program (in English) on Cyber Security Engineering.
- Customised training programs and cyber security exercises for management and technical staff.
- Research and consultation.

COMPETENCIES

- Cyber security education, exercises, training
- Critical information infrastructure protection
- Network security and monitoring
- Incident handling and operations
- Strategy and policy aspects in cybersecurity
- Cryptography
- Digital forensics
- Risk management
- Legal aspects of cyber security
- Human aspects and cyber hygiene

CONTACT DETAILS

TalTech Centre for Digital Forensics and Cyber Security | Akadeemia tee 15a | 12618 Tallinn

www.taltech.ee | cybercentre@ttu.ee