SUBSCRIPTION FORM
(PART C) SELF CERTIFICATION (FATCA & CRS), INDIVIDUAL

All Finnish financial institutions, including fund management companies, are required to collect and report, as requested certain information about their clients, such as the country of tax residency of the client to local competent authorities. This obligation is based on common reporting standard of the OECD, FATCA laws of the U.S. and local legislation. Financial institutions are required by FATCA to identify persons that are reporting to the USA.

If you are a tax resident in another state than Finland and that state is participating in the international exchange of taxation information under CRS or FATCA regulative framework, GRIT Fund Management Company Ltd is obligated to convey information given on this self-certification form to third parties, including the Finnish tax authority, and annually declare to the Finnish tax authority all financial accounts (including those relating to fund units) you may hold directly or indirectly to fulfil its obligations.

This form shall be used by private persons and private entrepreneurs (non-legal entity) for the disclosure of FATCA and CRS related information. Please complete all sections, including date and signature.
