KUKRUSE POLAR MANOR*KUKRUSE MANOR, TOILA PARISH. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23

The exposition at Kukruse Polar Manor tells two tales through the past of one family. On the one hand, there is the tale of a passion so great that it gives birth to history. On the other hand, there is the tale of how a passionate desire to go down in history can lead to one's doom. These are the tales of the Von Toll family.

Kukruse is the oldest manor in Ida-Viru County. The finding of oil shale in its park marked the beginning of mining and industrial use this mineral resource in the region.

IISAKU PARISH MUSEUM

TARTU MNT. 58, IISAKU. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

The museum gives an overview of folk costume patterns, embroideries and items of various peoples living in the region. It showcases songs and dances that differ from our own, but nevertheless contribute to the colour and richness of the region. Patterns can unite, connect and differentiate us from each other. On the Museum Night, visitors will be able to listen to songs, see different dances, taste intriguing cuisines and buy baked goods. Exhibits from the Museum of Ukraine are on display; interesting recipes are shared; etc. Larger groups are kindly asked to book their visit in advance by e-mail: info@iisakumuuseum.ee

NARVA ALEXANDER'S CATHEDRAL

KIRIKU 9, NARVA. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

On the Museum Night, tours of the cathedral take place at every full hour.

The permanent exhibition spans three floors (3rd-5th) of the tower building of Alexander's Cathedral. The 4th floor offers a view of Narva and Ivangorod. The permanent exhibition portrays the history of churches in and around Narva, Ingria and elsewhere.
