PETER THE GREAT HOUSE MUSEUM

MÄEKALDA 2, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

Peter the Great House Museum introduces the era of Peter the Great, 18th-century history of Kadriorg Palace and its parks. The exposition spans three floors and displays unique items that surrounded Peter the Great and Catherine I of Russia during their stays in the palace. The small art gallery of the house museum features portraits of Russian rulers, the oldest of which is the portrait of Mihhail F. Romanov, painted in the first half of the 17th century.

ESTONIAN MUSEUM OF APPLIED ART AND DESIGN

LAI 17, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

Join us for the Museum Night to explore the patterns in Estonian applied art from the early 20th century up to this day!

In addition to the artworks and patterns of the permanent applied art exhibition "Kogutud teosed" ("Collected Works"), this year we focus on explaining the professional terminology of applied art. With this, we celebrate the year of Estonian language — the month of May is dedicated specifically to terminology and professional language.

Visitors can also discover a large selection of art books from publishing house Lugemik (Chrestomathy), who are celebrating their tenth year of operation with the exhibition "Tõlkides kunsti. 80 trükist Lugemikult" ("Translating Art. 80 Printed Works from Lugemik").

Throughout the evening, visitors can enjoy themselves in the museum yard with delicious coffee from VeloCafe!

Open exhibitions include the permanent exhibition of applied art "Collected Works", "Translating Art. 80 Printed Works from Lugemik" and Estonian Ceramists' Association's exhibition "Mis hind hoiab" ("What is Keeping Me")

BANK OF ESTONIA MUSEUM

ESTONIA PUIESTEE 11, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23

100-year-old Bank of Estonia is celebrating a centenary-themed Museum Night. Come and discover the patterns of currency!

The programme features a quiz on the history of the central bank, an entertaining introduction to the permanent exhibition, the Bank of Estonia band and hidden object game "Rahamustrid" ("Monetary Patterns") with prizes.

Every guest can receive a photo of their visit to the museum.

Bank of Estonia Museum is focused on currency and the tasks of a central bank — in this case, the Bank of Estonia. In addition to the permanent exhibition, there is a special exposition dedicated to the 25th anniversary of the Estonian kroon.

ESTONIAN CHILDREN'S LITERATURE CENTRE

PIKK 73, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

For the Museum Night, we invite our visitors to partake in activities inspired by children's literature and books! The second-floor hall features pattern-making and geometrical shadow puppetry, supervised by illustrator Kertu Sillaste. In the attic, there are colouring and crafting activities, and a sign-workshop.

OPEN EXHIBITIONS INCLUDE:

- In the Edgar Valter Gallery, visitors can admire the original illustrations of the beloved artist, watch cartoons and stage productions with characters designed by Valter, study a poku-house and listen to the sounds of nature.
- The Stairway Illustration Gallery is displaying the werewolf exhibition "Jookseb koos huntidega" ("Runs with the Wolves") that features the works of Estonian, Latvian and Lithuanian illustrators.
- The Treasure Chamber offers an overview of Estonian children's literature through the ages. Visitors can also learn how a children's book is born.

DANCE FESTIVAL MUSEUM

KAUPMEHE 8, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

Summary exposition of the exhibition series „Tantsu- ja laulupeo auks – rännak pidurõiva kirstu“ ("In Honour of the Song and Dance Festival – A Journey Into the Chest of Festive Clothes")! The exposition displays folk costumes and handicraft from Lihula, Muhu and Kihnu.

19.30-23.00 Dance Festival Museum WORKSHOPS (at any given time; price of materials: 5-10 euros)

1. Bead threading with KAIRI HIMMA. The patterns will be based on original museum samples from prehistorical, medieval and more familiar periods, when folk costumes were already worn. The threaded beads, while contemporary in form, are nevertheless true to past.

2. Embroidering of pockets with Lihula floral patterns, supervised by LIHULA FLORAL EMBROIDERY SOCIETY

3. Muhu brooch-making with ANNE KEERD

4. Introduction to silver jewellery by JÜRI URB.

THE ART MUSEUM OF ESTONIA / KADRIORG ART MUSEUM

A. WEIZENBERGI 37, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23, ENTRY UNTIL 22.30.

Kadriorg Art Museum invites everyone to explore the exquisite and luxurious patterns of the 300-year-old Baroque palace, whether they are found in garden design, dinner tables or hairstyles. In the banquet hall of the palace, both young and old can participate in creative activities and create patterns of the Baroque themselves.

17.00-19.00 Workshop on the patterns of the Baroque in the Banquet Hall

18.00-22.00 Professional guides are on duty in the exhibition halls, offering information about the artworks and introducing the history of the Baroque palace.

Throughout the Museum Night, the exhibition "Alguses olid... Köler ja Weizenberg" ("In the Beginning, There Were... Köler and Weizenberg") on the second floor of the palace and permanent exhibition of the museum on the third floor remain open for visitors.

TALLINN SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS MUSEUM

TAMMSAARE TEE 147, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18.00-23.00. ENTRY UNTIL 22.30.

Guided tours take place at every full hour. Visitors can get acquainted with the documents, educational materials, calculators, conspectuses etc. of the 112-year-old School of Economics. Exhibits include the flag of the school from the first period of Estonian independence. Visitors can also try out their skills with “calculators” (abacus, slide rule, Felix Arithmometer).

Figures made with typewriters and Iskra 226 computers are on display. Visitors can try to create simple patterns with these devices themselves.

MUSEUM OF ESTONIAN ARCHITECTURE

AHTRI 2, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMME 18.00-20.00

— game of patterns and exciting handcraft activities.

KGB PRISON CELLS MUSEUM

PAGARI 1, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

The basement of the building at Pagari st. 1 in the old town of Tallinn housed one of the most infamous and feared remand prisons during the period of Soviet occupation.

Visitors can learn about the building, timeline of the most important events in the Estonian history, people who were imprisoned in the cells, their reasons for ending up there and their fate, and the repressive policies of the Soviet Union. Visitors can also see the infamous cupboard and learn what it feels like to be in a lock-up.

Six cells and two corridors are open for visitors. The posterior corridor is displaying an exhibition of paintings by Joann Saarniit.

The texts accompanying the permanent exhibition are in Estonian, Russian and English.

VABAMU MUSEUM OF OCCUPATIONS AND FREEDOM

TOOMPEA 8, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

Let's come together for the Museum Night to draw the patterns of freedom, both on paper and also on the glass walls of the museum building!

The exhibition "Vabadusel ei ole piire" ("Freedom Without Borders") is about occupations, resistance, restoration and freedom. It consists of five parts: "Inhumanity", "Exile", "Soviet Estonia", "Restoration" and "Freedom".

Museum visitors receive an electronic tour guide that leads them on a gripping and reflective journey through the recent past.

The e-tour guide is available in seven languages (Estonian, English, Russian, Finnish, German, French, Spanish). The e-tour guide app can also be downloaded to a personal smartphone.

NÕMME MUSEUM

JAAMA 18, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23

The Museum Night programme on 18 May will feature a meeting (at 18.00) with the creator of the old bicycle exhibition.

Visitors will hear exciting stories about children's, women's, men's and soldiers' bicycles from private collection owner Toomas Piht. The bicycles on display are from the period of 1880-1940; the most eye-catching exhibit is probably the high wheeler a.k.a. ÄMBLIK (Spider).

The permanent exhibition of Nõmme Museum, situated in a wing of the historical Nõmme railway station building, portrays the development of Nõmme as an independent city.

ESTONIAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

LAI 29A, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 17.00-23.00

The Estonian Museum of Natural History invites you to a Museum Night journey!

The independent journey will begin in the first-floor exhibition halls, where visitors can find the exhibition "Isad ja pojad" ("Fathers and Sons").

The second-floor geology hall gives an overview of the formation of Estonian territory, its geological make-up, our mineral resources and their mining.

The second floor also features the recently overhauled hall of Estonian wetlands. The exposition briefly introduces the formation and contemporary state of Estonian wetlands, distinguishes the different types of wetlands, explains their importance and provides guidelines for moving around on these ancient and unique terrains.

The journey continues in the third-floor forest hall, where visitors are greeted by an abundant exposition of mammals, birds and insects.

Museum texts and audio guides are available in Estonian, Russian and English.

EDUARD VILDE MUSEUM (TALLINN LITERATURE CENTER)

ROHELINE AAS 3, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23.

The authentic home of Eduard Vilde reflects the mind, era and daily life of the great writer – it shows us the man behind the writings. Come and try to write with a quill and ink, just like Vilde did; try on various 1920s accessories; breathe the historical air of the place!

19.00 and 21.00 — Poetry Break. Join us on this busy Museum Night for a poetry break. Twice in the evening, Vilde Museum is proud to present poetess Veronika Kivisilla, whose mellow and touching literary notes about everyday life were recently published also as the prose collection “Kuni armastus peale tuleb” (“Until Love Sparks”).

Throughout the evening, a cozy veranda cafe and exhibition on the gallery floor are open for visitors.

EXHIBITIONS

The Great Hall on the 2nd floor of Kumu is displaying the exhibition „Gordon Matta-Clark: anarhitekt. Anu Vahtra: eemaldamise teel tervikuni“ (“Gordon Matta-Clark: Anarchitect. Anu Vahtra: Completion Through Removal”). Gordon Matta-Clark (1943–1978) was an American conceptual artist who fundamentally changed our understanding of the role of architecture. His site-specific artworks exposed the chaos and anarchy behind the ostensible orderliness of urban space. Anu Vahtra’s project in the Kumu outdoor area is inspired by Matta-Clark’s work.

The Project Room in the back of the 4th floor permanent exhibition features the exhibition „Aiapagu. Tuglaste kodu aed Tanja Muravskaja fotoobjektiivis“ (“Garden Exile: The Tuglas’s Home Garden Through Tanja Muravskaja’s Camera Lens”).

The permanent exhibition of Estonian art “Varamu” (“Treasury”) in the A-wing of the 3rd and 4th floor is also open for visitors.

TALLINN CITY GALLERY

HARJU 13, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 12-23

For the Museum Night, all the exhibition venues of the Art Hall are displaying the Spring Exhibition 2019. Since the beginning of the Art Hall in the 1930s, yearly overview exhibitions have usually taken place in spring or autumn. The organisers, venues, frequency and character of the exhibitions have changed over time, but the need for at least one overview exhibition of Estonian art per year has remained. This year, the 19th yearly exhibition takes place in Tallinn Art Hall, Tallinn City Gallery and Tallinn Art Hall Gallery.

The Museum Night will feature both Estonian and Russian-language guided tours of the exhibition.

ESTONIAN HEALTH CARE MUSEUM

LAI 30, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23, ENTRY BY QUEUE ORDER UNTIL 22.30.

The Health Care Museum is full of patterns — we have cellular patterns and tissue patterns, fingerprint patterns and retina patterns, brainwave patterns and heartbeat patterns; bacterial patterns; muscular patterns and bone patterns; patterns on walls, floors and ceilings; micro-level and macro-level patterns. Would you like to care for your health and improve your lifestyle patterns? Would you like to break free of unhealthy habits and patterns? Join us in the Estonian Health Care Museum and find these patterns!

ESTONIAN HISTORY MUSEUM / SÄREV THEATRE-ROOM

TINA 23-13, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23, ENTRY UNTIL 22.30.

18.00-23.00 Darkroom Patterns

This Museum Night we will be demonstrating how to take black-and-white photos without using a camera! For this purpose, we will transform the erstwhile kitchen of the Särev family into a darkroom where theatrical photograms are made. Darkroom pattern-making is supervised by our museum photographer Mart Laul.

Throughout the Museum Night, visitors can attend the theatre-room and look for special patterns in the former home of actors.

TALLINN TELEVISION TOWER

KLOOSTRIMETSA TEE 58A, OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18.00-22.30 (WITH ADVANCE BOOKING)

On the Museum Night, the Television Tower can be visited with an advance booking only: teletorn@teletorn.ee

18.00, 18.30, 19.30, 20.00, 20.30, 21.00, 21.30, 22.00

For the Museum Night, the Television Tower is presenting the new exhibition “GEENIAALNE” (“GENE-IUS”), created in collaboration with the Estonian Genome Centre of the University of Tartu. We will travel far into the past, all the way back to the moment when planet Earth emerged, and study the genomic patterns of human beings.

The Era Clock makes it evident that direct ancestors of contemporary humans stepped on the stage of Earth's history only very recently. Yet, once they arrived, they brought along monumental biological and cultural changes that quickly spread across the continents.

The Museum Night lets you step into a cell and see what you can find; track the structure of a volunteer donor's 22nd chromosome; find out whether you have an increased risk of falling ill with type 2 diabetes, or whether you like the taste of Brussels sprouts. Let the waves of the DNA sequencing ball pool wash over your head!

KALAMAJA MUSEUM

KOTZEBUE 16, TALLINN.

The museum building is closed for renovations and will open in autumn 2019.

Even though the building itself is off limits, the museum will expand into the city for the Museum Night and organise tours (starting in front of the museum, at Kotzebue 16) that will get you acquainted with Kalamaja subdistrict.

Find more information about the tours from the Museum Night website and www.linnamuuseum.ee/kalamaja

Also, participate in the game PATTERNS OF THE CITY: Tallinn City Museum affiliates invite you to find the actual places in Tallinn with the views also displayed in our exhibitions (e.g., in the images on display around Kalamaja Museum). Learn more about the exhibits by visiting our museums and then use the added coordinates to find the real-life objects in the city. Take a photo of the same view, post it to Facebook or Instagram, either to the museum’s page or your wall, and tag it with #muuseumiöö2019 and #linnamustrid.

The most diligent participants will receive prizes!

HOTEL VIRU AND KGB MUSEUM

VIRU VÄLJAK 4, TALLINN

Once upon a time, there was a hotel that came to be named Viru. The year was 1972 and the end of the Soviet Union was still almost 20 years away. The hotel was purpose-built for foreign guests — but also for the state security, i.e., the KGB... An hour in this place will make the two parallel worlds of the Soviet period intelligible and tangible!

Free Museum Night tours at 17.30 and 20.30 (in Estonian) and 19.00 (in Russian). Duration: 1h. Tours can be attended with ADVANCE BOOKING ONLY; maximum size of each tour group is 25 people. The museum can only be visited with a guided tour. Book in advance before 18.00 on 16 May at Sokos Hotels Tallinn sales outlets (on workdays 8.00-18.00), by phone (+372 6809 300) or by e-mail (viru.reservation@sok.fi). Find out the exact starting times of the tours in the foyer of Hotel Viru.

ESTONIAN OPEN AIR MUSEUM

VABAÕHUMUUSEUMI TEE 12, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18.00-23.00

Threshing barns and farmyards, everyday items and festive clothes, stone walls and forest groves in the Estonian Open Air Museum form countless patterns. Our gates are open for the Museum Night and every visitor is welcome to discern this beauty in our exposition for themselves.

Sassi-Jaani: Dance is a language of patterns that can be interpreted differently by each person. Every shape, step or lifting tells a story. Folk dance ensemble Soveldaja will greet the Museum Night visitors with their programme at 19.00 and 20.00.

Köstriaseme: Every pattern contains a bit of history. The hostess of Köstriaseme reminisces and tries to re-create an intriguingly ornamented broomstick from the doorstep her childhood home.

Kolu tavern: The tavern is displaying the exhibition „Läbi lillede“ (“Flowery Expressions”) curated by craftswoman Lembe Sihvre. The exhibition features blankets with floral embroidery made by various handicraft clubs and associations.

Härjapea farm: Väätsa Maanaiste Selts (Väätsa Rural Women Association) is organising a domestic cafe to raise money for the folk costumes of their parish choir. The Song Festival is approaching and women need to dress up! Come and see the patterns that these ladies have weaved into their baked goods!

Pulga farm: Cross, square, ring, zigzag, triangle and looped square – these symbols were adopted thousands of years ago and sprung from ancient pagan beliefs. Each of these ornaments has featured on figured belts — one of the finest and most important components of our folk costumes. Have you ever witnessed how an authentic figured belt is made? The hostess of Pulga farm will demonstrate her skills and methods.

Lau village shop: Striped candy, squared chocolate bars, round-shaped biscuits! The shopkeeper has something delicious for everyone's tastes!

Pattern-seeking game: Grab a game sheet from the ticket office and spot the exciting patterns in the farmyards! Participants will enter a lottery draw for a free ticket!

THE ART MUSEUM OF ESTONIA / ADAMSON-ERIC MUSEUM

LÜHIKE JALG 3, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23

“A RIVER OF PATTERNS” – visitors can take part in creating a river of patterns at the permanent exhibition of Adamson-Eric's works.

“GEOMETRICAL PATTERNS” at the temporary exhibition “Laval ja lõuendil” (“On Stage and On Canvas”) in the museum basement – activity space for interacting with performing arts. Visitors can make stage designs out of geometrical forms and create sketches of costumes. The activity is suitable for children and families.

The exhibition "On Stage and On Canvas" portrays both personal and theatre-oriented works of Estonian artists from the first half of the 20th century.

HUNGARIAN INSTITUTE

PIISKOPİ 2, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18-23

Visitors – both young and old – are invited to explore the works of Hungarian printmaker Dóra Keresztes, who is known to many Hungarians as an illustrator of children's books.

In addition to the exhibition, we will be showing a selection of Dóra Keresztes' animated films and organising manual activities for children.

CAFE MAIASMOKA MARZIPAN ROOM

PIKK 16. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 10.00-23.00

Much of the exposition is dedicated to Georg Stude, the Baltic German who initiated marzipan-making in the mid-19th century at that very place. The exhibits include historical photographs of vintage production processes and important individuals, and also some interesting packagings from the late 19th and early 20th century. The exhibition also features almost 200 marzipan figures, cards and cakes, made with century-old moulds.

For the Museum Night, the cafe is open until midnight!

CARVED STONE MUSEUM

VABADUSE VÄLJAK, TALLINN. OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18.00-23.00, ENTRY UNTIL 22.30

The Carved Stone Museum is rich in ornaments from different periods – Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque patterns. Visitors can sketch their favourite patterns or characters to enter a lottery draw.

Built in the 17th century for defensive purposes, the Ingrian Bastion is today displaying the carved stone collection of the City Museum. Portals, pillars, ashlar with house marks and relief windowpanes from the 15th century and onwards tell us vivid stories of the history of Tallinn.

COMPUTER MUSEUM

TUULIKU TEE 4C, TALLINN (ACCESS TO THE MUSEUM FROM VÄRVI STREET).
OPENING HOURS FOR THE MUSEUM NIGHT: 18.00-23.00

Computers are not merely useful tools that make our lives easier, but interesting phenomena on their own right. Each machine and model comes with a distinct appearance and story about its design.

The world of computers is full of patterns and food for thought. Our exhibits sit tightly side by side not only due to the size of the room, but also to bring forth their beauty, and to take us on a journey through time and memories. Industrial views from the windows harmonise with the old computers to form even broader patterns.

As always, visitors can try out and enjoy old computer games, whose pixel patterns underlie all the contemporary games and have a big influence on the aesthetics of our lives.

The museum also features a souvenir shop "640KB" that contributes to this year's theme of patterns and helps you to prepare for the summer – we are selling a wide selection of hand-painted and computer-themed retro T-shirts and postcards!
