Introduction

Karl-Kristjan Kahm is one of Estonia's top corporate law experts, specialising in large-scale mergers and acquisitions.

Karl-Kristjan has long-term experience working with leading Estonian banks, pan-Baltic investment and real estate funds, and other large international companies. Alongside day-to-day business consulting, Karl-Kristjan has an impressive track record in helping complete a variety of major transactions. He has consulted clients in acquiring loan portfolios, making real estate investments reaching into the hundreds of millions, formalising cross-border transactions, and carrying out complex acquisitions.

In addition to the financial and real estate sectors, Karl-Kristjan also consults companies in the technology sector, advising innovation leaders who already have an international focus as well as fast-growing startups that need to secure investments.
