Introduction

Mari is one of the most recognized labor law experts in Estonia, whose unique professional competence comes from her long-term personal experience in managing a large company and extensive professional activities in the implementation of labor law.

For more than 15 years, Mari was a member of the board of AS Kuusakoski (AS Eesti Metalliekspord – EMEX), actively involved in resolving EMEX's personnel and legal issues. Since 2008, Mari has been working as a daily labor law consultant, whose clients include many of the most famous large Estonian companies.

Mari is the author of the annotated edition of the Employment Contract Act "Employment Contract Act 2009" and the three-part manual "Employment Contract Act in Practice 2010". Mari has also published several articles on labor law in professional periodicals.
