Introduction

Mikk is an outstanding attorney who, in addition to his solid professional knowledge, stands out for his determination, high discipline and strong character.

Before joining RASK, Mikk completed internship programmes in various law firms and the Supreme Court and has been a role model for his peers in law studies and extracurricular activities. Alongside his university studies, Mikk honed his argumentation skills in the University of Tartu Debate Club and actively participated in organising the work of the Estonian Law Students' Union. His excellent oral and written communication skills are evidenced by great results from the Estonian Moot Court competitions, where Mikk won the Best Orator title in 2022. Mikk's team took second place in the finals the same year and received the award for the best written work.

For over ten years, Mikk has also been active in high-performance sports (karate), achieving impressive results, including first place in the European Championship, second place in the World Championship and several Estonian championship titles.

At RASK, Mikk advises clients mainly in civil and corporate law matters.
