Introduction

Viviana is a versatile attorney with extensive experience in dispute resolution, assisting our attorneys-at-law in handling civil disputes, including insolvency cases, defamation disputes, construction-related conflicts, and other contract-based disagreements.

She has previously worked as a lawyer in both the private sector and at the Consumer Protection and Technical Regulatory Authority (in the Consumer Disputes Committee Secretariat). Viviana has also completed internship programs at the North District Prosecutor's Office and at the North Prefecture with a senior investigator.

Viviana's thoroughness, attention to detail, and broad experience across various national institutions make her a valued member of the RASK dispute resolution team.
