

TRANSPORTATION:

ARRIVING VIA TALLINN AIRPORT:

The buses to Tartu depart in every full hour (and, in some cases, even more often). The travel time between the two towns is approximately 2 hours and 20 minutes (180 km). Note that this only applies to the buses departing at full hours (the LUX Express buses).

Bus line in Tallinn Airport

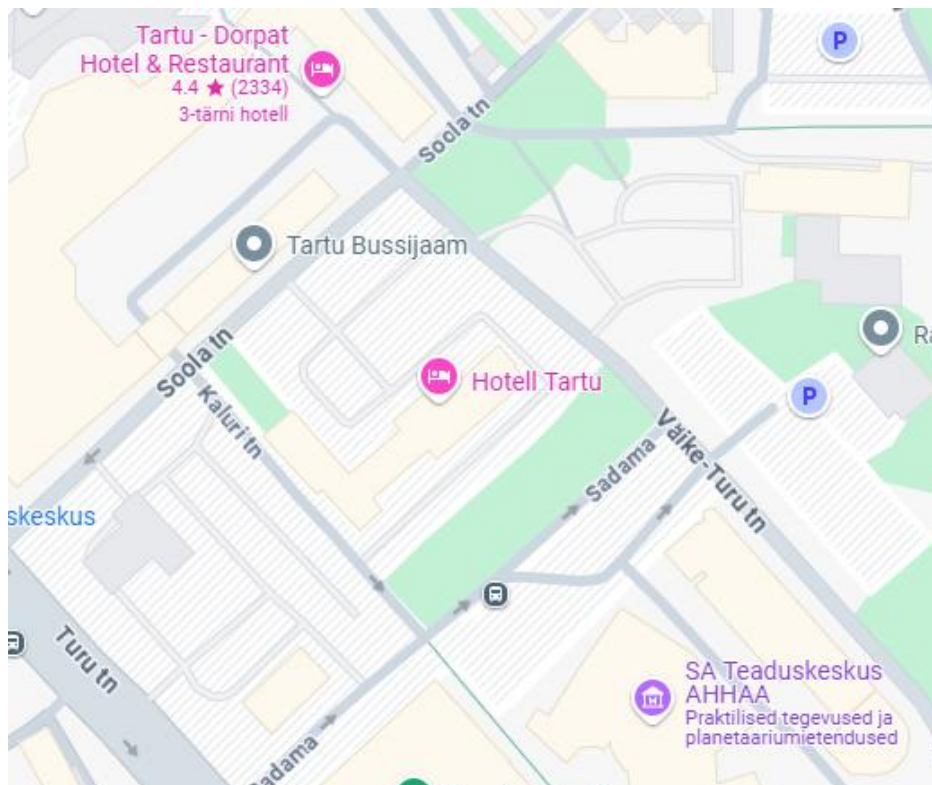

The buses leave from Tallinn Airport (Tallinna Lennujaam) to Tartu Bus Station (Tartu Bussijaam). The tickets can be purchased 15 days in advance:

Alternatively, they can be bought on-site from bus or ticket machine. In this case, there might be a slight chance that the buses are sold out.

Arriving to Tartu by bus. The bus station in Tartu is right in the town centre (and also right next to Hotel Dorpat, across the street from Hotel Tartu and AHHA Science Centre). The distance between the bus station and the Science Centre AHHA is 200 metres.

There is also a possibility to use trains but we do not recommend it as the Tartu train station is not so close to AHHA as the bus station. Trains can be overcrowded as well.

ARRIVING VIA TARTU AIRPORT:

The airport is located 10 km outside the town and there is one bus line that connects this to the city. The only airline that operates from Tartu is Finnair and the only destination is Vantaa, Helsinki.
