

VILLU VESKI & TIIT KALLUSTE Tango Nuevo Sextet

Estonian jazz musicians Villu Veski & Tiit Kalluste went right to the source of the Tango & travelled to Buenos Aires for inspiration in composing the new Estonian version of Tango. They came home with the blueprint for music inspired by the colours & vibrations of Argentina. It could be said they were somewhat ahead of their time, as a massive new wave of new tango JAZZ 'N' TANGO, is now flooding the globe.

This program released on CD « Mi Tango en Buenos Aires » and DVD « Tango Nuevo », where the Villu Veski/ Tiit Kalluste tangosextet are joined by Argentinean drummer recorded at Estonian National Concert Hall in Tallinn, Daniel Pipi Piazzolla (grandson of Astor Piazzolla).

VILLU VESKI - saxophones TIIT KALLUSTE - accordion ANDRE MAAKER -guitar
TAAVO REMMEL - double bass LEHO KARIN - cello KASPAR KALLUSTE - drums

Tango for an old accordion

Mi Tango en Buenos Aires

BOOKING

STUDIO <https://www.kvstudio.ee>