DRUMSHANBO WITH BRAZILIAN PINEAPPLE GUNPOWDER IRISH GIN®

On this latest leg of his many journeys led PJ Rigney along the Equator, across the Atlantic and into the heart of the South American continent – to the captivating and wonderous country of Brazil.

PJ was greeted by the thrilling sights and sounds of ‘Carnival’, and PJ knew he had to discover more of what this rich culture had to reveal.

Emerging from the treeline at Novo Remanso, PJ came across a small hillside family farm where he was introduced to the deliciously exotic and juice-filled Brazilian Pineapple, known locally as “abacaxi”.

PJ’s Curious Mind began to devise an extraordinary recipe to incorporate the refreshingly sweet and tangy Brazilian Pineapple into Drumshanbo Gunpowder Irish Gin back at The Shed Distillery in Drumshanbo. The result is the exotically tropical Drumshanbo Gunpowder Irish Gin with Brazilian Pineapple – Curiosity calls for the Extraordinary!

Gunpowder Carnival Lemonade:

 2 parts Drumshanbo Gunpowder Irish Gin with Brazilian Pineapple

 1 part pineapple juice

 ½ part lime juice

 ½ part simple syrup

Pour over ice & top with soda water. Garnish with fresh red grapefruit, a slice of pineapple and a sprig of fresh mint.
