There was a time I worked with someone at a store. He liked to be a lways up. I shared with him like i noticed on a fellow the charriot of their practices whcih should have been sustained_ - one day i heard a beautiful word that defines how trash gets around a boat while the boat is seating. That man one day I saw as i was having my break at the Promenade. There I saw him. Later i was communicated of his dead. He "commit suicide" as was created and when one shaked the hand of his father the father was happy. He was gay and very literate quiet equivalent to Lorca.__ Vs the doings of others which eventually they will or would have those tendencies as they were rpreventing things for appening. There was always the choice to let go of_
